

FT Board Director Networking Event

Tuesday 26 April, 18.30 - 20.30

We are delighted to invite you to our FT Future Forum & FT Board Director networking drinks on Tuesday 26 April, 18.30 - 20.30 BST at the Financial Times, Bracken House, 1 Friday Street, London, EC4M 9BT.

This session is a chance for you to connect and meet fellow members at our first in-person event of the year. We'll also be joined by guest speakers Katie Martin, Markets Editor, Financial Times and Philipp Hildebrand, Vice Chairman, BlackRock who will discuss the markets outlook for 2022. Post-event content will be shared after the event for those of you unable to attend.

If you would like to join the event, please RSVP to boarddirector@ft.com with your details and any dietary and/or access requirements so that we can register you and send you a calendar invitation.

Please note that spaces at this event are limited. In order to confirm your place you must respond to the invite and wait for our confirmation - this is done on a first come first served basis so please reply promptly.

Best wishes,

FT Board Director team
